To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to leave the world a bit better whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know that even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded.

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Never doubt that a small group of committed people can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has.

Margaret Mead

You make a living by what you get. You make a life by what you give.

Winston Churchill

You must give some time to your fellow man. Even if it's a little thing, do something for which you get not pay but the privilege of doing it.

Albert Schweitzer

THREE LEVELS OF AWARDS

Schaumburg's 23rd Annual Volunteer of the Year Awards Program again will recognize an outstanding local adult volunteer, volunteer organization and local youth volunteer for junior high through high school age for 2010.

As in previous awards, winners will be selected by a blue ribbon panel of judges after nominations from the residential and business communities are reviewed.

All nominees will receive a nomination merit certificate. Each of the three winners will receive a plaque.

Nominees can represent social, civic, religious,
community, school, and medical organizations.

Excluded are for-profit and political organizations.

Dear Friends:

Without volunteers, Schaumburg's Village government could not function. The Zoning Board, the Plan Commission, Schaumburg's Board of Health are all comprised of volunteers. Volunteers organize and operate Septemberfest. Volunteers serve as members of the Village's Cultural Commission, Bikeways Committee, and Olde Schaumburg Centre Commission. Volunteers hire Schaumburg's police officers and fire fighters through the Police and Fire Commission.

Clearly, they are an essential ingredient in local government.

But there are other volunteers, working alone or working within organizations, who also contribute to the community. We'd like to recognize them and the organization they belong to, and we need your help to do it.

Please volunteer some time on behalf of volunteers and nominate an adult for Volunteer of the Year, a Junior High through High School age Youth of the Year and/or a worthy organization for Volunteer Organization of the Year. We need to hear about the good that some people are doing and about the fine work that volunteer organizations are involved in. Your help will help us give these folks the recognition they deserve. Please feel free to forward the nomination materials to a colleague if an organization or individual does not immediately come to mind and/or share the information about this wonderful awards opportunity at any of your group's upcoming events.

Call Roxane at 847-923-3605 for more information. We need to hear from you by April 1, 2010.

Sincerely,

VILLAGE OF SCHAUMBURG

Al Larson
